Christian Living Bible Institute voted best online seminary

Christian Living Bible Institute, (CLBI) announced today that they have been named the best online seminary in a 2009 survey

Whitehouse Station, NJ, February 23, 2009:

Christian Living Bible Institute (CLBI) has been named one of the country's fastest growing seminaries. In a recent survey, students looking to become pastors or ministers voted Christian Living Bible Institute the best online seminary in the US!

Dean and Sr. Pastor of CLBI, Bob Paulson, stated, "We are thrilled to hear that students like our school. We understand that there are many wonderful seminaries and Bible schools available and we are happy that we can fill the niche of students who want a low cost education and the ability to study at their own pace."

Recently CLBI placed their entire 2 year course onto CD's which cut the cost of tuition by 85%. Since becoming an accredited Seminary in June of 2008, CLBI has been growing rapidly. CLBI is run by a staff of volunteers who's mission is to help 10,000 students become trained in the Bible and ordained through Christian Living Ministry.

"We have the belief that if a person is called to serve our Lord, they will study the Bible without any outside influence. That is how our school works. We provide the various Bibles, study guides and library materials in a digital format and our students get everything on 5 cd's and then send in their homework via email. Even the Final exams are done online. By using technology, we are able to offer students a quality Bible education from our accredited school at a fraction of the tuition found in traditional seminaries," stated Paulson.
